Ohio has the opportunity to transform into a leader in the environmental movement. Whether it's through an expansion of wind power across the state or on Lake Erie, or through our innovative solutions to solve algae blooms in Toledo, our ingenuity can cause us to rise above other states as we try to solve some of the greatest crises in history. Ohio can save the world - but how?

The Ohio Public Interest Environmental Law Conference will kick start a distinctly Ohioan conversation to discuss controversial and complicated state and national environmental concerns. Whether you're a law student, an attorney, a business, or an environmental advocate, we need to come together to learn from one another and pursue a healthier and more sustainable future.

The Ohio Environmental Council invites you to join us at this inaugural Conference where we will explore How Ohio Can Save the World. Learn from top-notch public interest attorneys, industry representatives, academics, and current and former state government environmental experts while meeting people who want to solve the environmental crises facing Ohio, the United States, and this planet.

The OSBA’s presents - The Importance of the Ohio Constitution in Modern Individual Rights Litigation: *Two Shots are Better than One.

Featuring: Judge Jeffrey Sutton’s Book, Fifty-one Imperfect Solutions: States and the Making of American Constitutional Law.

Date: Oct. 15th

This event is being held at the Ohio State Bar Association in Columbus. It is also being broadcast via the web, share this link and you can watch the program live on Oct. 15th. \(LINK\)

The Importance of the Ohio Constitution in Modern Individual Rights Litigation Two Shots are Better than One

DESCRIPTION

Guided by the following observations, this program seeks to contribute to the development of a robust, independent and principled Ohio constitutional jurisprudence.

State constitutions, too, are a font of individual liberties, their protections often extending beyond those required by the Supreme Court's interpretation of federal law. The legal revolution which has brought federal law to the fore must not be allowed to inhibit the independent protective force of state law—for without it, the full realization of our liberties cannot be guaranteed.

William J. Brennan, Jr., State Constitutions and the Protection of Individual Rights, 90 HARV. L. REV. 489, 491 (1977).

[A]n underappreciation of state constitutional law has hurt state and federal law and has undermined the appropriate balance between state and federal courts in protecting individual liberty.

Judge Jeffrey S. Sutton, FIFTY-ONE IMPERFECT SOLUTIONS: STATES AND THE MAKING OF AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW (Oxford Univ. Press 2018).
