Biographical/Historical Sketch

Elizabeth Rudolph was a student at the University of Toledo from 1926 to 1930. While attending the University, she was involved in the UT Woman's Athletic Association, Psi Chi Phi (now Delta Delta Delta), and various other activities around campus. Not much is known about her academic career at UT; however, she was able to collect pieces of value from the associations in which she was involved. She was also listed in the sixth and seventh annual May Day celebration in 1928 and 1929 as a garland dancer and as an attendant to the Queen.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains memorabilia collected by Elizabeth Rudolph while a student at the University of Toledo. Items come from the UT Women's Athletic Association, Psi Chi Phi, and the University Hall cornerstone laying ceremony. Other items include programs, newspaper clippings, and other booklets. Please take note that the UT W.A.A. ceramic dolls are fragile and should be handled with care.

Items are arranged in no particular order.
