

Congratulations to our “Outstanding Economics Majors” Spring 2021

- LOAY ALARAB - Outstanding Student in Political Science; double major Political Science and Economics. This fall Loay will enter the University of Michigan PhD program in political science with full funding package.

- JACK BOCZAR - Outstanding Student in Philosophy; double major Philosophy and Economics. Jack will get his PhD in Philosophy and is still weighing his options on where to attend this fall.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT in PHILOSOPHY

JACK BOCZAR

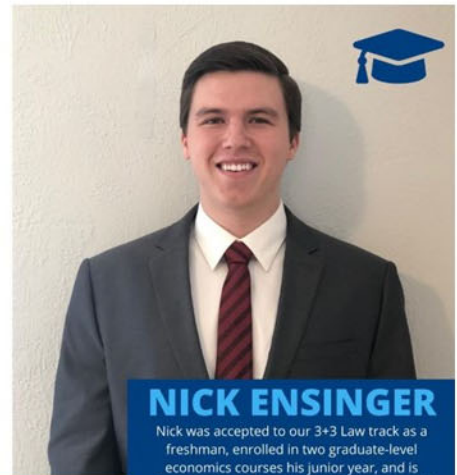

Jack is a 4.0 student athlete double majoring in Philosophy and Economics. His favorite thing about studying at UToledo was being inspired by faculty members. He took a class at the Toledo Museum of Art which sparked his interest in aesthetics.

Jack will get his PhD in Philosophy and is still weighing his options on where to attend this fall.

- NICK ENSINGER - Outstanding Student in Economics – Nick was accepted to our 3 + 3 Law track as a freshman and is simultaneously completing his senior year of undergrad and his first year of law school. Nick will work as a legal intern over the summer before starting his second year at the UToledo College of Law this fall.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT
in ECONOMICS

NICK ENSINGER

Nick was accepted to our 3+3 Law track as a freshman, enrolled in two graduate-level economics courses his junior year, and is simultaneously completing his senior year of undergrad and his first year of law school.

Nick will work as a legal intern over the summer before starting his second year at the UToledo College of Law this fall.
