

PSY 1010
Research Exposure Requirement

Email:
psychresearch@utoledo.edu

Psychology Research

- Most introductory science (e.g., biology, chemistry, etc.) courses have a research/ lab component
- In PSY 1010, you will be exposed to ongoing research

The Research Exposure Requirement

- All PSY 1010 students must complete FIVE (5) credits of research exposure
- Failure to complete 5 credits will result in a grade of Incomplete (I) for the course
 - I becomes F after one semester

How to Earn Research Credit

1. Write research reports
2. Participate in psychology research

Research Reports

- Based on preselected scientific articles from a psychology journals
- Reports involve answering set questions about the articles, such as:
 - Purpose of the study
 - Hypotheses of the study
 - Methods used (in sufficient detail)
 - Results and conclusion
- To see more instructions, find the list of suitable articles, and to actually submit reports, go to:
https://utpsych.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_aYmmYtMMQIX0mdD
- Each report = 1 credit

Participating in Research

- Participate in psychology research
 - 0-30 minutes = 0.5 credit
 - 31-60 minutes = 1.0 credit
 - 61-90 minutes = 1.5 credits
 - 91 – 120 minutes = 2.0 credits
- All scheduling of psychology research is conducted using online system:

<http://utoledo.sona-systems.com/>

- Most PSY 1010 students already have a user account
 - Check your UT email account for your user name and password.

Prescreen

- Before completing other research studies as part of research exposure/extra credit, you will first have the option to complete a prescreen assessment study
- The purpose of the prescreen study is to establish eligibility for other studies that will come later in the semester
- The prescreen survey includes questions about yourself, including demographics (e.g., race, gender), beliefs, behaviors/habits, and feelings
- The study will take place online in SONA Systems and will take about 30 minutes

- The study is worth 0.5 credits toward your psychology course requirement/extra credit and will take about 30 minutes to complete
- To read more information about (and to participate in) this prescreen assessment, begin by logging into SONA at <http://utoledo.sona-systems.com/>
Check your UT email account for your user name and password
- Please complete the prescreen in one sitting. If you begin with the prescreen, and you are halfway through, and then you log out/ close the browser, your answers will not be saved!!!!

Online Studies

- To earn full credit, complete the entire study; Thus,
 - If you log out mid way
 - If you do not submit your responses
 - Stop answering questions
- } No Credit!!!
- You can withdraw from the study any time; however, you will NOT receive credit if you do so
 - When you finish, you will be taken to a different survey page where you will enter your name. This is important for assigning participation credit

Experiment Cancellations

- You may cancel your session online
 - Cancellations must be done at least 2 hours before the start of the session
- If you cannot cancel in the time window, email the study's experimenter ASAP
- Do not to contact me about cancellations

No-shows

- If you fail to show up for your scheduled appointment without properly canceling, you will receive an “Unexcused No-Show”
- 3 Unexcused no-shows = blocked from the research system
 - If this happens, all of your credits can be earned through written reports ONLY

How to Avoid No-Shows

1. Make sure you can make it to a study before you sign up for it
2. Check your account to find out exactly when and where the study is being held
 - Get there a few minutes early
 - Write down the study name and time
3. If you need to cancel, do it more than 2 hours before the start of the session
4. Do not be late

Underage Students

- If you are under 18 years old, you are considered a legal minor and must get permission from parent/guardian to participate in this and other research studies
- Before logging into SONA to complete this study, you need to hand in the general research permission form and the parental consent form
- These will be available after this lecture, via email (psychresearch@utoledo.edu), or on your Blackboard course website

- Prescreen assessment also has separate consent forms for parent/guardian
- Before logging into SONA, email research team for a permission slip and parent consent form, or download them from the psychology department's website.
- These forms must be completed and handed in before participating in research
