

International Field School Dominican Republic Spring 2019

A semester long course with travel
during spring break.

Trip Dates:
March 1-9, 2019

Do you want to gain research
experience
abroad?

Do you enjoy
learning about
different cultures?

No Spanish skills
are necessary, but the trip is definitely an opportunity to practice Spanish, French, and Haitian- Creole!

Contact Information:

Dr. Shahna Arps

Shahna.Arps@utoledo.edu

or

Dr. Karie Peralta

Karie.Peralta@utoledo.edu

Department of Sociology and Anthropology

This three credit, experiential learning course will immerse students into fieldwork to understand cultural and social aspects of local realities and develop research skills. This year's project will focus on education and health and entails collaboration with a grassroots organization and bilingual Spanish and Haitian-Creole School that serves Haitian immigrant children.

Please attend one of these informational meetings:

Monday, October 22nd, 4 p.m., UH, Rm 4380

Wednesday, November 14th, 4 p.m., UH, Rm 4380

Wednesday, December 5th, 4 p.m., UH, Rm 4380

