

Welcome

to the 2002-2004 University Catalog

This publication is the key to planning your academic program as a beginning or a continuing UT student. Please become familiar with its contents. Students should consult their college advisers to facilitate planning of course schedules for the fall and spring semesters. The 2002-2004 University of Toledo Catalog is designed to familiarize students, faculty and staff with University academic policies, course offerings, academic programs and college degree requirements. This publication includes the following major sections: a general information section explaining UT's academic policies, regulations and procedures; a program description section listing degree options for each academic college; and a course description section outlining each of approximately 6,000 course offerings.

Founded in 1872, The University of Toledo is a nationally recognized, comprehensive public university serving more than 20,000 students from throughout Ohio, the U.S. and 98 countries. The fourth largest public university in the state, UT is a Carnegie Doctoral/Research – Extensive institution and a member of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education. UT offers more than 250 undergraduate and graduate programs through eight academic colleges. These are the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education, Engineering, Health and Human Services, Law, Pharmacy and University College.

A Message from the President

Dear Students:

Thank you for choosing The University of Toledo. This catalog is your guide to the many programs and services we offer, and I recommend that you keep it handy and refer to it often.

As a large metropolitan research university, UT presents you with outstanding opportunities to learn and grow. I urge you to take advantage of as many of those opportunities as possible.

Volunteer with a local non-profit group. Try a service learning course. Join a club or organization on campus. Attend a play, concert or sporting event. Get to know your adviser and your professors by visiting them during office hours. Take part in student government. Participate with faculty in their research. The opportunities are endless.

On behalf of our faculty, staff, alumni and volunteers, let me extend a warm welcome to The University of Toledo family. We are glad to have you here, and we sincerely hope that your time with us will be time well spent.

Welcome!

Dan Johnson

President
