WHAT IS FULBRIGHT?
Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, The Fulbright U.S. Student Program offers fellowships abroad for one academic year to graduating college seniors, graduate students, young professionals, scientists and artists.

Program participants pursue graduate or professional study, advanced research, or English teaching in elementary and secondary schools or universities. Each year, approximately 1,600 Americans traveling to more than 140 countries receive support from the Fulbright U.S. Student Program.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS
- Be a U.S. citizen at the time of application. (Permanent residents are not eligible.)
- Hold a bachelor’s degree or the equivalent before the start of the grant. Applicants without a BA or the equivalent may also be considered if they have extensive professional study and/or experience in the field they wish to pursue.
- Submit a satisfactory Medical Certificate of Health from a physician.
- Demonstrate proficiency in the written and spoken language of the host country sufficient to communicate with the people and to carry out the proposed study. This is especially important for projects in the social sciences and the humanities.
- Enrolled students are required to apply through UT
- For more information on eligibility requirements, including ineligibility, please visit: us.fulbrightonline.org

FULBRIGHT U.S. STUDENTS
Are recent college graduates, postgraduates, artists, scientists and other young professionals.
- Strive to foster mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries by learning from their hosts overseas while sharing American experiences with their counterparts.
- Represent the richness and diversity of the United States through their varied backgrounds, hometowns and academic institutions.
- Pursue research, teach English or undertake graduate study in a wide range of academic fields in over 140 countries.
- Use their international experiences as cultural ambassadors to enhance their academic and professional careers and become leaders in their fields.

The Fulbright Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. us.fulbrightonline.org
TYPES OF GRANTS AVAILABLE

- Fulbright Academic Study, Research, or a combination Grant
- Fulbright Creative and Performing Arts Grant
- Fulbright English Teaching Assistant Program Grant
- Fulbright – mtvU Award
- Fulbright – Hillary Rodham Clinton Fellowship
- Fulbright – National Geographic Digital Storytelling Fellowship
- Fulbright - Confucius China Studies Program Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship

Fulbright Grants for Research/Study and Fulbright English Teaching Assistantships Provide:

- Round-trip transportation
- Funding covers room, board, and incidental costs
- Accident and sickness health benefit
- Round-trip transportation to the host country
- Maintenance for the academic year, based on living costs in the host country
- Book and research allowances
- Healthcare coverage
- Mid-term enrichment activities in many countries or world regions
- Full or partial tuition, in some cases
- Language or orientation programs, in some cases
- The Fulbright Critical Language Enhancement Award: Candidates for the Fulbright U.S. student program in selected regions may apply to receive up to six months of additional intensive language training in eligible critical languages. The application for the Fulbright Critical Language Enhancement Award (CLEA) is made in conjunction with the Fulbright U.S. Student application.

GETTING STARTED & HOW TO APPLY

1. Attend an Information Session.
2. Meet with the Education Abroad Office about different program opportunities.
3. Consult with your academic adviser on how Fulbright will fit into your program of study.
4. Set and prioritize your goals.
5. Apply for your program. Consult Fulbright website for deadlines.
6. Plan for your trip, observe important deadlines, secure passport!
7. Prepare personally, academically, and financially.

CONTACT US

Education Abroad Office
Location: Snyder Memorial 1000
Phone: 419.530.5291
Email: eduabroad@utoledo.edu
Web: www.utoledo.edu/cisp