LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear graduates,

Congratulations! Today it is my pleasure to welcome you, formally, as graduates and alumni of The University of Toledo.

You have achieved a great feat. From your first class to the moment that you cross the stage, your journey here has been full of triumphs and challenges that required your persistence to make it to where you stand now. Take the opportunity today to reflect on the challenges you overcame and the hard work you put in to make your dreams a reality. We see your accomplishments and we celebrate with you.

After today's ceremony, you may wonder what comes next. I hope that your time at UToledo has encouraged you to approach this world with a bold determination and embrace the opportunities before you. If there is one thing that Rockets are known for, it is the attitude with which we solve problems, overcome obstacles and learn new things. And it is that attitude — the Rocket spirit — that will help you succeed at your goals no matter where you go.

As a UToledo graduate, you have a strong foundation for future successes and join a network of support spread across the globe. I encourage you to take advantage of the resources provided through the UToledo Alumni Association. We are here to support you in your career and are committed to providing life-changing education to future generations of driven Rockets like you.

It has been an honor to accompany you on this journey. On behalf of all of us at The University of Toledo, including our Board of Trustees, faculty, advisors, staff, alumni and community supporters, we are incredibly proud of you. I cannot wait to see what your future as a UToledo graduate holds for you. Congratulations and Go Rockets!

Sincerely,

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

9 a.m. | May 4, 2024

The Honorable Randy Gardner

*Former Chancellor
Ohio Department of Higher Education, Doctor of Public Service, honoris causa*

School teacher. Legislator. Chancellor.

Randy Gardner has dedicated his life to public service in multiple ways, culminating at the end of 2023 with five years as Chancellor of Higher Education in Ohio, a cabinet post in the administration of Governor Mike DeWine.

For 33 years Gardner was a member of the Ohio General Assembly, representing Northwest Ohio in the House and Senate. He served 19 years in legislative leadership, including terms as House Speaker Pro Tem and Senate Majority Leader. In addition to his advocacy for education, Gardner was known for his work ethic, earning the title of “The Cal Ripken of the Legislature”. He achieved a 100% roll call voting record — 10,433 consecutive votes — without missing one day of session over 33 years.

As chancellor, Gardner advocated for an “all of the above” approach to supporting post-secondary education, including Ohio’s four-year universities. Need-based student financial aid and numerous other scholarship programs for students significantly increased during Gardner’s tenure, particularly the Choose Ohio First STEM scholarship and a new Governor’s Merit Scholarship providing renewable $5,000 annual scholarships for students in the top 5% of each high school graduating class. Gardner also recommended Ohio’s first-ever Mental Health line item in the state budget for university mental health services.

Gardner began his education career as a history and government teacher at Otsego High School. He received both his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Bowling Green State University.

He and his wife Sandy reside in Bowling Green and are the parents of three children and grandparents of three grandchildren.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

1 p.m. | May 4, 2024

Romules Durant, Ed.D.
*Chief Executive Officer and Superintendent
Toledo Public Schools
Doctor of Pedagogy, honoris
causa*

Dr. Romules Durant, the CEO/Superintendent of Toledo Public Schools, stands as an inspiration for innovation and dedication in the field of education. Last year, he celebrated his 10th anniversary at the helm of Toledo Public Schools, the fifth-largest school district in Ohio. According to the Council of Great City Schools, Dr. Durant is currently the longest-serving superintendent of a large urban school district within its network.

As the 29th superintendent of TPS, Dr. Durant has exemplified an unparalleled commitment to his hometown of Toledo. His dynamic leadership has steered the district on a path of prosperity, marked by growing graduation rates and an enhanced overall bond rating. Toledo Public Schools now has five thematic magnet high schools, thanks to Dr. Durant’s vision, which cater to the diverse interests of students from across the region.

These schools foster a culture of academic excellence for their students and each has established strong partnerships with local businesses and industry leaders who hope to one day call TPS graduates their employees. A shining example of the success of these innovative schools is Toledo Early College. Located just across Bancroft Street, this school empowers students to seamlessly blend their high school education with collegiate pursuits, allowing them to earn up to 60 college credits from The University of Toledo at the same time they are earning their high school diplomas — at no charge to the students or their families.

Dr. Durant’s influence and reputation extend far and wide as he currently serves on 14 area boards of trustees. He has also received numerous accolades during his professional career, including five Hall of Fame awards, the 20 Under 40 Award, the Ohio School Board Association President’s Award and the Buckeye Association of School Administrators Exemplary Leadership Award.

A proud graduate of The University of Toledo and former Rocket football player, Dr. Durant’s commitment to excellence echoes through every facet of his professional journey. As he looks to the future, he plans to continue spearheading transformative changes that will continue to propel the district to new heights.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Ramona Collins

Doctor of Music, honoris causa

Since her professional debut in 1969, Ramona Collins has earned a reputation as one of Toledo's most active, gifted, consistent and popular performers.

Initially known for her dynamic vocal style and stage presence, her ability to connect with audiences — no matter the size, setting or musical genre — soon garnered her a loyal following. The esteem she enjoys as a performer has only been enhanced by her willingness to use her voice to advocate for local musicians and serve as an ambassador for Toledo's jazz community wherever she performs.

Early lessons — on performance, professionalism, and repertoire — from her jazz pianist mother, Alice (Collins) Carter, prepared her for life as a performer. Drawing inspiration from her musical elders and mentors, as well as Toledo's storied jazz history, Ms. Collins has mentored many and inspired untold others to pursue their dreams and take their craft seriously. She is just as comfortable sharing the stage with seasoned musicians as she is pouring into young performers. Those benefiting from her wisdom include budding artists in local schools, as well as students at Berklee College of Music, where she conducted a master class in performance.

For 55 years, Ms. Collins has navigated the economic and political pressures local artists face. For her, "the show must go on" has been a motto that applies not only to her musical commitments, but also to motherhood, marriage and maintaining a day gig for much of her performing career. "I am proof that you can touch lives and thrive as a local or regional performer; you just have to put yourself out there and put in the work."

Ms. Collins is the mother of five — Brett, Brian, Brina, Brad and Brandi — who look forward to calling her "Dr. Mama."

Visit ramonacollins.com for more information about her music and performances.

Robes and hoods worn during the commencement are steeped in tradition that dates to the 11th century, when the monks who administered Oxford University in England wore shoulder capes to protect themselves from scratches when they gathered alms and hoods to protect their shaven heads from the cold. Eventually, the garb was worn daily to serve as both insulation from the damp and cold inside the university's walls and as identification that one had permission to pass into specific college buildings.

Similar practices were later adopted by the monks who administered Cambridge University in England in the 12th century and in later years by other universities administered by the Benedictine, Franciscan and Dominican monks across much of western Europe.

In the United States, the academic robes and hoods were first adopted as ceremonial attire for college officials in 1754 at the institution now known as Columbia University. In 1885, students in many of the country's colleges and universities launched a movement to permit graduating candidates to wear robes and caps during the commencement. Eight years later, an intercollegiate commission of university officials adopted the country's first code of color and design for the academic garb. Faculty soon adopted the custom of wearing gowns at commencement and other academic ceremonies. Although the code has been revised many times, today's academic regalia represents those modifications accepted in 1960 and adopted by nearly 95% of the nation's postsecondary institutions.

In the United States today, the academic robe is most often black; some institutions, however, sanction the use of specific colors. The length of the robe, the width of the sleeves' borders and the length of the hood all increase with each advanced degree.

Colors in the hoods identify both the specific field of study in which the degree was earned, as shown by the velvet border, as well as the institution which granted it, as shown by the lining. The color table provides a key to the fields of study represented by The University of Toledo's graduates, faculty, administrators and distinguished guests.

GRADUATION WITH DISTINCTIONS

Although many traditions of academe are treasured and maintained with rigor, others evolve to complement the distinct personality of the institution and its focus on students. Such was the case in the fall of 1995 at The University of Toledo, when it replaced its single, campus-wide honors convocation with more personal ceremonies hosted by the dean and faculty of each academic college.

Changes in the convocation's format led to changes in how faculty select and recognize outstanding students within their respective colleges. One significant change has been the awarding of medallions to graduates of the University Honors Program.

The University recognizes outstanding academic achievement based on grade point average in the law and baccalaureate colleges by awarding the degree Cum Laude (with Honors), Magna Cum Laude (with High Honors) and Summa Cum Laude (with Highest Honors). At the associate level, this designation is High Scholarship.

In addition, the University now bestows colored cords to honor all baccalaureate and associate candidates who qualify for graduation with distinction.

HONORS COLLEGE MEDALLIONS

The Honors College presents its graduating candidates with cast medallions that hang from gold ribbons and diplomas indicating the completion of all the honors requirements of their baccalaureate colleges. These candidates, the Honors College dean and the directors of each college's honors program are wearing their medallions in today's ceremony. In order to qualify for graduation with the Honors College diploma and medallion, each student must maintain at least a 3.3 cumulative grade point average, earn a substantial number of credits through designated honors courses, complete a thesis or research project and satisfy all the other requirements of his or her respective college's honors program.

HONORS CORDS

The University has awarded honors cords to all undergraduate candidates who will graduate with distinction. Blue and gold twisted cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student who maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.9 for all college work and who will be granted a diploma bearing the words Summa Cum Laude, the University's highest of three special honors. Blue cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.6 and who will graduate Magna Cum Laude, the University's second highest honor. Gold cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 and who will graduate Cum Laude, the University's third highest honor. White cords have been awarded to each associate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or higher throughout his or her studies and who will graduate with High Scholarship.

MILITARY CORDS

Red, white and blue military honor cords recognize graduates who have served or are currently serving in the United States Armed Forces.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

The University of Toledo is a nationally recognized, comprehensive, doctoral-granting, metropolitan research institution. The University was founded in 1872 by Jesup W. Scott, a public-spirited Toledoan, who donated 160 acres of land as an endowment for a university to train young people for roles in what Scott believed would be the “Future Great City of the World.” Called the Toledo University of Arts and Trades, it provided only a limited curriculum and closed its doors in 1875 due to a lack of funding. In 1884, the institution reopened as the Toledo Manual Training School after Scott’s sons gave the remaining assets of the University to the city.

In 1928, Toledo taxpayers approved a bond levy to raise funds to build a new, permanent home for the institution after many years of existing in temporary locations. Three years later, the University moved to the new Bancroft Street campus. The University continued as a municipal institution until 1967, when it joined Ohio’s system of public higher education.

On July 1, 2006, The University of Toledo merged with the Medical University of Ohio. The medical school was created by the state legislature in 1964 as a stand alone institution to help meet the country’s urgent need for physicians. Originally housed in Lucas County’s former tuberculosis hospital, the Health Science Campus is located in south Toledo in buildings designed by the internationally known architect Minoru Yamasaki. Through this merger, the University now offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in programs in the arts; humanities; social sciences; natural sciences; engineering; education; pharmacy; health professions, including nursing and medicine; and the law. It is one of only a handful of public institutions in the country that provides such a broad range of undergraduate, professional and graduate programs.

SEAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

The basic design has been used since 1931, when permission to use the coat of arms was granted by Don Jose Ballester, the mayor of Toledo, Spain. The seal recognizes the sister-city relationship between Toledo, Ohio, and Toledo, Spain.

The University’s motto, inscribed in old Spanish at the base of the seal, reads: “Coadyuvando el Presente, Formando el Porvenir,” which translates to “Guide to the Present, Moulder of the Future.” The seal bears a large, blue eagle holding a shield divided into four segments. The upper left portion is from the original Spanish coat of arms. In 2006, the seal was changed to add three new shield quadrants to represent the University’s mission of education and research and the merger with the Medical University of Ohio. The banner below the eagle includes four dates: 1872, the year the University was founded; 1884, the year it became a municipal institution; 1967, the year it joined Ohio’s system of higher education; and 2006, the year it merged with the Medical University of Ohio.
