Tenure Requirements:

Criteria for granting of tenure:

Only full time members of the faculty holding regular appointments as Professor or Associate Professor in tenure eligible tracks may be considered for tenure. Tenure is awarded to a qualified faculty member based on the faculty member's projected contributions to the goals, needs, and objectives of The University of Toledo, and its constituent colleges, departments and programs. A candidate for tenure must a) demonstrate continuing abilities to maintain the responsibilities and duties commensurate with their current faculty rank and provide evidence of continuing career development; b) actively and innovatively contribute to the development of The University of Toledo; c) demonstrate competence in all areas of academic accomplishment; and d) show excellence in at least two of the following areas of endeavor:

- 1. Teaching (Education),
- 2. Scholarly activity, including research, and
- 3. Service (clinical, national, professional, community, and/or administrative).

Please refer to the appendix for definition of the terms "teaching (education)", "scholarly activity", "service", "research", "national recognition", and "primary author".

Excellence in teaching (education) is demonstrated by the following:

- 1. Consistently superior teaching evaluations by students, residents, and/or peers.
- 2. Evidence of outstanding teaching by teaching awards, student performance on
- i. National examinations and other means used to evaluate teaching skills.
- 3. Successful mentoring of students to become independent scholars.
- 4. Participation as a speaker or organizer of regional, national and international courses or workshops.
- 5. Major contribution to design, organization and dissemination of various educational materials as courses, CDs, DVDs, Editorship for major peer reviewed journals, and initiatives at The University or community level.

Excellence in scholarly activity means an independent, national reputation that is attained by receiving sustained scholarship and national recognition.

Excellence in scholarly activity is demonstrated by the following:

- 1. Publication of a substantial number of peer-reviewed articles in high quality national or international journals.
- 2. PI or Co-PI continuing grants from national or international agencies that are awarded based on peer review.
- 3. Presentation of research at national or international meetings.
- 4. Participation in the state and national grant peer-review process.
- 5. Invention disclosures and approved patents.

Excellence in service will be demonstrated by the following:

- 3. Notable exemplary service on state, national and international professional committees or organizations
- 4. Innovative research and/or clinical programs to improve health care delivery that are recognized regionally, nationally, or internationally.

Tenure Questionnaire

Eligibility. Tenure is awarded based on merit and value for the University of Toledo and COMLS. Tenure may be awarded to full time faculty members at the levels of Associate Professor or Professor and is conferred by the UT Board of Trustees. Tenure applications are reviewed by the APT committee independently from promotion applications if both requests are submitted at the same time. Tenure decisions are postponed in the setting of a new faculty appointment, where some University of Toledo experience is advisable, unless the new faculty fulfills the requirements described in the "Expedited Tenure Review" policy (#3364-72-15).

Questionnaire. Please provide frank and concise responses to the following questions.

Merit as an academician

- 1. Please explain your ongoing and previous external funding that supports your scholarly activity. Explain your role on the projects and your future plans to sustain your scholarly work.
- 2. Provide examples that demonstrate the prominence of your academic reputation at the national/international levels (e.g.: presentations at the national/international meetings, areas of expertise, honors and awards, invited reviews and editorial activities, service for professional societies, etc.).
- 3. Provide evidence for a stellar record of development of either creative and innovative educational material, new knowledge, or unique areas of expertise (as applicable to your current track).
- 4. Give an assessment and description of your plans for continued career development.
- 1. Value to the University and COMLS
- 2. Describe your long-term commitment to the COMLS and to the University of Toledo in terms of significant academic accomplishments.
- 3. Provide a list of your active and innovative contributions to the development of programs at the COMLS and the University of Toledo in areas of teaching, scholarship and service, at the clinical, research, national, professional, community and/or administrative levels (as applicable).
