Number of Credit Hours to raise your GPA to 2.0:

Find your current GPA color and the column with your current graded credit hours. Use this to determine how many credit hours are needed to raise your GPA to 2.0 with potential future grades.

Financial Aid Parameters
- Must maintain a cumulative 2.0 GPA
- Must successfully complete 2/3 of credit hours attempted
- Maximum time frame for aid is 150% of hours required for degree

Financial Considerations [In-State Tuition and General Fees]
- $1,155.27 for each additional 3 credit hours
- $4,621.08 for each additional semester of 12-18 credit hours

GPA of 1.5 with:
- Minimum CH for Associate’s degree: 30 CH
- Maximum CH using Financial Aid: 180 CH

GPA of 1.0 with:
- Minimum CH for Associate’s degree: 45 CH
- Maximum CH using Financial Aid: 120 CH

GPA of 0.0 with:
- Minimum CH for Associate’s degree: 60 CH
- Maximum CH using Financial Aid: 120 CH

\[CH = \text{Credit Hours}\]