

Strategic Peacebuilding Paths

Vocations & Career Options in Peace

* Education and learning are foundational to all transformative peacebuilding practices

JUDITH HERB
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

Restorative Justice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Addressing historical and ongoing harms against indigenous people • Community-based restorative justice • National restoration processes (addressing historical structural harm) • Prison system reform 	Nonviolent Social Change <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Active nonviolence • Community organizing, mobilization or social action/movements • Issue-based educational campaigns • Media/journalism/writing • Minority and marginalized empowerment and civil rights advocacy
Law: Advocacy and Solidarity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family law and domestic violence protection • Human rights law • Immigration law, immigrant services and education • Indigenous cultural preservation, solidarity and rights • International law and policy work • Labor and employment law/protection • Land issues • Migrant justice, migration and human trafficking • Work with youth: Child protection, rights, services 	Dialogue / Conflict Resolution Strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Arts-based approaches to social transformation • Conflict monitoring and early warning • Cross-cultural contact programs • Inter-faith, inter-ethnic, and intercultural dialogue • Language interpreting or teaching • Local peacebuilding institutes and training • Mediation or dispute settlement • Reconciliation • Violence prevention or resolution
Dealing with Transnational and Global Threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corruption and organized crime • Cultural and structural violence • Economic and social injustice • Environmental degradation and climate change • Gender exclusion and gender-based violence • Genocide and mass violence • Human rights violations • Human trafficking • Imperial domination • Nuclear and small arms proliferation • Poverty, hunger and homelessness • Terrorism • War 	Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adult and civic education • Applying gender lenses to peace and conflict • Building peaceable schools • Educational reform initiatives • Investigating cultural and structural violence • Leadership development and training among historically disadvantaged groups • Service learning • University-based peace studies/ peace education/ peace research • Vocational schools
Humanitarian Action <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Crisis health care and social services • Human rights protection and monitoring • Humanitarian advocacy and law • Humanitarian emergency response • Information management for relief operations • Public health work related to structural and physical violence 	Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economic development • Gender equality work • Housing and urban development/redevelopment • Human and social development • Local and international development • Microfinance and small business development • Strengthening democratic institutions and participation • Sustainable development, sustainable agriculture
Government and Multilateral Efforts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Civil-military relations • Demobilization and disarmament • Diplomacy • Intergovernmental organizations • Peace processes • Policy analysis and implementation • Post-conflict reconstruction 	Trauma Healing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Child soldier reintegration • Collective community healing • Refugee resettlement and services • Trauma therapy and counseling/social support • Victim support and reparations <hr/> Transitional Justice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • International Criminal Court or tribunals • Justice to address mass atrocity and human rights • National and local justice processes