

2024-25 DEPENDENCY APPEAL

COMPLETE WITH BLACK INK ONLY.

Complete this Dependency Appeal to request a review of your dependency status if you do not meet the 2024-25 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) criteria for independent student status, but you have completed (or will be completing) the FAFSA without parent information under a "provisional independent status" due to one of the unusual circumstances listed below. The following chart outlines the types of circumstances that may be considered, as well as suggested documentation to support each circumstance. Once your Dependency Appeal and all supporting documentation has been received, please allow up to 5 business days for your appeal to be processed.

Possible Circumstances and Suggested Documentation

Circumstance	Suggested Documentation
ABANDONMENT: Your parents have abandoned you, you have no contact with your parents, and you have been under the care of another adult or have been supporting yourself since that abandonment.	<ul> <li>A letter from your high school guidance counselor and</li> <li>A letter (on agency letterhead) from a counselor/therapist or other professional source who is personally familiar with your situation.</li> </ul>
ENDANGERMENT: You and your parents have severed all contact due to circumstances that would constitute endangerment (physical or psychological) to you.	Court documentation or police report(s) and     A letter (on agency letterhead) from a counselor/therapist or other professional source who is personally familiar with your situation.
INCARCERATION: Your parent (in a single parent family) is incarcerated and you have no contact with your other parent, or both of your parents (in a two parent family) are incarcerated.	<ul> <li>Current proof of incarceration and</li> <li>A letter (on agency letterhead) from a counselor/therapist or other professional source who is personally familiar with your situation.</li> </ul>
DEATH OF PARENT: Your supporting parent is deceased and you have no contact with your surviving parent.	<ul> <li>A copy of your parent's death certificate and</li> <li>A letter (on agency letterhead) from a counselor/therapist or other professional source who is personally familiar with your situation.</li> </ul>
VICTIM OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING: You have been certified to be a victim of a severe form of trafficking by the Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).	Unexpired, original certification letter (submitted in person to the Office of Student Financial Aid or Rocket Solution Central).
REFUGEE or ASYLEE: You have been granted refugee or asylee status by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and are separated from your parents, or your parents are displaced in a foreign country.	Unexpired, original entry status documentation that identifies your current or prior status as a refugee or asylee (submitted in person to the Office of Student Financial Aid or Rocket Solution Central).

It is your responsibility to identify the parties who may be able to help you document your situation. Suggested sources are listed below. Your source(s) must be personally familiar with your family situation.

• Minister

Attorney

- Teacher/professor
- Caseworker

• Doctor

- Counselor/therapist
- University administrator
- Relative (not a parent)

Letters from parents are not acceptable.

Any letter submitted as documentation from a professional source should be on agency letterhead, if appropriate, and should include:

- 1. Your name.
- 2. The nature of the writer's relationship to you and the length of time they have known you.
- 3. The reason(s) why you cannot provide your parents' information on the FAFSA.
- 4. The writer's name, signature, address, and telephone number.

Please note: Upon receipt of your documentation, it may be necessary to request additional information to clarify or supplement documentation already submitted. You will be notified by email if additional information is needed.
