2025-26
PARENT CHANGE WORKSHEET

COMPLETE WITH BLACK INK ONLY.

You changed the parent information originally reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to a different parent's information. Federal regulations may not allow us to accept this change. To determine if this change is compliant with FAFSA guidance, complete this worksheet and return it to our office so that we can continue processing your federal financial aid.

Information Regarding Reporting Marital Status and Parent Determination

Consistent with the Supreme Court decision on the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), same-sex couples must report their marital status as married if they were legally married in a state or other jurisdiction (foreign country) that permits same-sex marriage. This decision is applicable to independent students and parents of dependent students.

FAFSA guidance for dependent students:

Which parent should include information on your FAFSA?

- If your parents are separated or divorced, your parent for FAFSA purposes is the one who provided you with the most financial support over the 12 months prior to the date you filed your 2025-26 FAFSA, even if you do not live with that parent. If that parent is remarried as of the date you filed FAFSA, both parent and stepparent must complete FAFSA.
- If both parents provided an exact equal amount of your financial support, or if neither parent supports you financially, your parent for FAFSA purpose is the parent with the greater income and/or assets as of the date you filed your 2025-26 FAFSA. If that parent is remarried as of the date you filed FAFSA, both parent and stepparent must complete FAFSA.
- If your legal parents are unmarried and living together, both parents must complete FAFSA.
- If your parent was widowed and has remarried as of the date you filed FAFSA, both parent and stepparent must complete FAFSA.

Step 1: Did one parent provide you with the greater portion of your financial support over the 12 months prior to the date you filed your 2025-26 FAFSA?
