

1 Demonstrate specialized knowledge of human communication

1.1 Demonstrate knowledge of basic human communication and swallowing processes including the appropriate biological, neurological, acoustic, psychological, developmental, and linguistic and cultural bases.

1.2 Demonstrate the ability to integrate information pertaining to normal and abnormal human development across the life span.

1.3 Demonstrate knowledge of standards of ethical conduct.

2 Demonstrate skills for prevention, evaluation and intervention and management of communication disorders

2.1 Shall select or use appropriate plans, strategies, materials or instrumentation for prevention, intervention and progress evaluation of clients/patients in a limited clinical experience.

2.2 Demonstrate skills in oral and written or other forms of communication sufficient for entry into professional practice.

2.3 Adhere to the ASHA code of ethics

3. Demonstrate professional behavior interaction and personal qualities

3.1 Communicate effectively, recognizing the needs, values, preferred mode of communication, and cultural/linguistic background of others, including colleagues, faculty, staff, client/patient, caregivers, and relevant others.

3.2 Create communication that demonstrates content knowledge, deep reflection, creativity and critical thinking skills to effectively evaluate collaborative products and processes.