

Undergraduate with Degree (UWD) Speech-Language Pathology Leveling Courses

Term	Course #	Course Title	Credit Hours
Fall (15 credits)	SLP 3020	Anatomy & Physiology of the Speech Mechanism	4
	SLP 3030	Language Acquisition	4
	SLP 3200	Articulation and Phonological Disorders	4
	SLP 3400	Introduction to Audiology	3
Spring (11 credits)	SLP 3010	Phonetics	4
	SLP 3150	Speech and Hearing Science	4
	SLP 3800	Clinical Methods	3

In addition to speech-language pathology coursework, the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) and Ohio Department of Education have additional requirements as listed below before SLPs can obtain professional licensure/certification. Students must earn a “C” or better grade in all SLP major courses as well as those requirements listed below to meet ASHA/Ohio Department of Education requirements. Graduate program requirements may be higher.

ASHA Requirements for Certification:

We recommend the following:

Statistics (3 credits)

MATH 2600

English (3 credits)

ENG 1100 or 1110 and ENG 2960 or Comp II

Introductory Psychology (3 credits)

PSY 1010

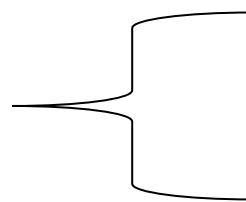

Introductory Sociology (3 credits)

SOC 1010

Natural Science (3 credits)

EXSC2460 and 2560: Anatomy & Physiology

Physical Science (3 credits)

PHYS 1310: Physics of Music & Sound

PHYS 1300: Physics of Everyday Life

CHEM 1100: Chemistry and Society

CHEM 1230: General Chemistry

Or higher level courses in PHYS/CHEM

Ohio Department of Education Requirements at UT:

SPED 2040 Perspectives (Fall) and SPED 4110 Moderate Needs (Spring)

For more information about speech-language pathology, visit the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association website: www.asha.org or the UT SLP Program website: http://www.utoledo.edu/healthsciences/depts/rehab_sciences/speech/index.html