

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM II

It Sounded Great in the Glossy Brochure...So Where Is It? Carrying Out the Mission at a Mission Driven School Jeffrey A. Brauch	1
Catholic Law Schools and Ex Corde Ecclesiae , Or What Makes a Law School Catholic? Nicholas P Cafardi	7
Top Ten Reasons to Be a Law School Dean R. Lawrence Dessem	19
A Few Reflections on a Long Deanship John D. Feerick	25
So It Goes Thomas C. Galligan, Jr	31
The Business of Running a Law School John H. Garvey	37
Field of Deans I. Richard Gershon	49
Observations from the Skybox C. Peter Goplerud III	53
Two Visionary Deans of George Mason Law School Mark F Grady	59
The Dean's Role in Managing Technology Janice C. Griffith	67
Except for the Problems, Being a Dean Is a Very Good Job H. Reese Hansen	77
Preparing Legal Information Managers for Practice in the Digital Age Joseph D. Harbaugh	81

Noblesse Oblige: Four Ways the “Top Five” Law Schools Can Improve Legal Education Patrick E. Hobbes	85
Confessions of a Recidivist Interim Dean James M. Klebba	91
A Mentor of Her Own Lisa A. Kloppenberg	99
Desperately Seeking a Voice Jeffrey S. Lehman	103
Mission Possible: Hiring for Mission in a Vague World Richardson R. Lynn	107
The Future of Legal Education Joan Mahoney	113
Diversity in Law Schools: Where Are We Headed in the Twenty-first Century? Jon Mills	119
Ten Small Lessons from the Campaign Trail Gene R. Nichol, Jr	131
Taking Legal Communications Seriously Henry H. Perritt, Jr	137
Stranger in a Strange Land: Baptist Dean of a Jesuit Law School Mack A. Player	143
The Dean as Fundraiser Kenneth C. Randall	149
Of Cat-Herders, Conductors, Tour Guides, and Fearless Leaders Nancy B. Rapoport	161
Ed Sullivan and I Love Lucy : Images of Deaning—Students as a Key Internal Constituency Laura Rothstein	167
An Alternative to the Sectarian Vision: The Role of the Dean in an Inclusive Catholic Law School Mark A. Sargent	171

“Out of the Box” Thinking About the Training of Lawyers in the Next Millennium John E. Sexton	189
The Dean and the Budget: Not “Just a Bunch of Damn Numbers” Steven R. Smith	203
Taking Over Matthew L. Spitzer	213
On Deaning, Writing, and Roses Symeon C. Symeonides	217
What Should Our Students Justifiably Expect of Us as Teachers? Bradley Toben	221
The Associate Dean for Faculty Research Position: Encouraging and Promoting Scholarship Joseph P. Tomain and Paul L. Caron	233
Hitting for the Academic Cycle Paul R. Verkuil	245
“Today the Administration Building Burned Down ...” Notes from My First Year as Dean Allan W. Vestal	251
Thoughts on Academic Freedom: Urofsky and Beyond Donald J. Weidner	257
Thoughts on Decanal Recidivism L. Kinvin Wroth	269
And What Surprised You Most About Your New Job? Reflections on Becoming a Dean Michael K. Young	275