

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM III

Law Schools as Legal Education Centers Martin H. Belsky	1
Why I Must Teach Jeffrey A. Brauch	23
Staff Development Daan Braveman	27
So You Want to Build a Building: Some Helpful Hints for Those Deans Who May Develop an "Edifice Complex" Andrew M. Coats	31
Financial Management of the Law School: Costs, Resources, and Competition Jay Conison	37
Twenty Years Later Robert J. Desiderio	49
Unsolicited Advice to Law School Dean Search Committees R. Lawrence Dessem	55
Beach Talk Thomas C. Galligan, Jr	65
A Dean's Survival Guide Howard A. Glickstein	75
Beware of Navel Oranges Thomas F. Guernsey	81
The Similarities and Differences Between Independent and University Affiliated Law Schools Harry J. Haynsworth	87
Precision Teaching in Law School: An Essay in Support of Student-Centered Teaching and Assessment Dennis R. Honabach	95

Ruminations on a Deanship Colleen A. Khoury	105
Reflections of a Long-Serving Dean Norman Lefstein	109
Surprising Admissions Saul Levmore	113
“Insider” Deaning Stephen R. McAllister . . .	121
Managing the Dean’s Ceremonial Role John A. Miller	127
The Dean as a Crisis Manager John E. Montgomery	133
One View to Add to the Many Bill Piatt	143
Law School/Central University Relations: Sleeping with the Enemy Lawrence Ponoroff	147
Staff Matters Kenneth C. Randall	153
Minnesotan: A Language for Constructive Communication Between Faculty and Dean Douglas E. Ray	159
It’s Not Just a Job, It’s an Adventure! Jon H. Sylvester and Anthony J. Pagano	165
Are We Gatekeepers? Barry R. Vickrey	179
Advice from the New Deans Boot Camp Robert K. Walsh	185