

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM IV

The Dean and the Web: Charlotte s Web as a Dean's Parable Hannah R. Arterian	1
Leading Students to Distinguish Between Career and Vocation: Reflections from a Lutheran Law School Steven C. Bahls	11
Budgets Patrick J. Borchers	19
The Student-Faculty Retreat Jeffrey A. Brauch	23
Part-time Legal Education: It's Not Your Parents' Old Oldsmobile Edwin J. Butterfoss	25
Law School Leviathan: Explaining Administrative Growth Ronald A. Cass and John H. Garvey	37
Ten Things Deans Can Do with Students R. Lawrence Dessem	45
Scholarship Rag Thomas C. Galligan, Jr	55
The Law School in and as Community Kristin Booth Glen	63
The Dean s Role as a Member of the University's Central Administration Janice C. Griffith	79
Faculty Governance—Reflections of a Retiring Dean Harry J. Haynsworth	93
From Admiral to Dean John D. Hutson	101
What Is a Dean For? Robert Gilbert Johnston	111

Interloper in the Fields of Academe Peter Keane	119
Leadership Don LeDuc	125
Who Moved Your Cheese? Confessions of a Rat Richardson R. Lynn	131
Contending with a Merger Philip J. McConnaughay	139
What's Faith Got To Do With It? (With Apologies to Tina Turner) Thomas M. Mengler	145
Harry Truman and the Joy of Deaning Daniel J. Morrissey	153
Admissions after Grutter Jerry R. Parkinson	159
"Venn" and the Art of Shared Governance Nancy B. Rapoport	169
W&M Law School Came First. Why Care? W Taylor Reveley III	185
Resigning as Dean: Stepping Down or Stepping Up? David E. Shipley	189
I Apologize for this Essay Glen Weissenberger	195

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM IV

Staff Matter(s) Darby Dickerson	199
A Parable of Law School Leadership Kent D. Syverud	207