

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 41

NUMBER 2

Winter 2010

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM X

ESSAYS

Negotiating Paths, Creepy Crawly Creatures and Things that Go Bump in the Night: The Cautionary Tale of A Fourth-Year Dean Linda L. Ammons	255
Truth and Beauty: A Legal Translation Jim Chen	261
Learning by Doing: An Experience with Outcomes Assessment Mary Crossley and Lu-in Wang	269
The Non-Management Side of Academic Administration Michael A. Fitts	283
Continuing Professional Development in Law Schools Thomas F. Guernsey	291
A Short Comparison of Military Leadership with Law School Leadership—More Similarities than Differences? Walter B. Huffman	315
Developing a Skills and Professionalism Curriculum—Process and Product Earl Martin and Gerald Hess	327
Lessening Stress of the 1L Year: Implementing an Alternative to Traditional Grading Clinton W. Shinn	355

COMMENTS

When Close Enough Doesn't Cut It: Why Courts Should Want to Steer Clear of Determining What Is—And What Is Not—Material in a Child's Individual Education Program

Jeffrey A. Knight.....375

Making the Fair Housing Act More Fair: Permitting Section 3604(B) to Provide Relief for Post-Occupancy Discrimination in the Provision of Municipal Services—A Historical View

Benjamin A. Schepis.....411

Damage Deferred: Determining When a Cause of Action Begins to Accrue for a Cancer Misdiagnosis Claim

Ann Louise Zarick445