

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 42

NUMBER 3

Spring 2011

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LEADERSHIP IN LEGAL EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM XI

ESSAYS

Faith-Based Law Schools and an Apprenticeship in Professional Identity
Jeffrey A. Brauch 593

Colliding or Coalescing: Leading a Faculty and an Administration in the Academic Enterprise
Nora V. Demleitner 605

From Both Sides Now: The Job Talk’s Role in Matching Candidates with Law Schools
Anne Enquist, Paula Lustbader, and John B. Mitchell 619

The Forgotten Constituency? Law School Deans and Students
Kevin R. Johnson 637

Life Lessons for a Law School
George W. Prigge 649

The Dean’s Role in Building A Positive Workplace Environment
Douglas E. Ray 657

The Tenure of a Law School Dean: It’s Not How Long You Make It—It’s
How You Make It Long
Jim Rosenblatt 667

ARTICLES

Proponents of Extracting Slavery Reparations from Private Interests Must Contend with Equity’s Maxims
Charles E. Rounds, Jr. 673

“Your Honor, May I Have That In Writing?” A Proposed Response to Violations of the Federal Sentencing Written Reasons Requirement
Judy Ann Clausen 705

COMMENTS

The Tenth Anniversary of the Restatement (Third) of Property, Servitudes: A Progress Report Andrew Russell	753
Federal Environmental Law Waivers and Homeland Security: Assessing Waiver Application in Homeland Security Settings at the Southern Border in Comparison to National Security Settings Involving the Military Tiffany N. Tisler	777
The Completely Reimbursed “Victim”: Did the Sentencing Commission Get It Right? Matthew P. Waigand	803
Improving the Patent System: Community Sourcing and Pre-Grant Opposition Christopher J. Worrel	833