

---

---

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO LAW REVIEW

---

---

VOLUME 43

NUMBER 1

FALL 2011

---

---

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ARTICLES

Litigating Around the Long Shadow of Department of Housing and Urban Development v. Rucker : The Availability of Abuse of Discretion and Implied Duty of Good Faith Affirmative Defenses in Public Housing Criminal Activity Evictions Robert Hornstein .....	1
The Dynasty Trust in Ohio: A Short, Rigid, or Uncertain Reign John H. Martin .....	53
Extending Wrongful Death Damages to Kinship-Care Relationships Sonya Harrell Hoener .....	77
Big, Bold, and Bizarre: The Foreign Corrupt Practices Act Enters a New Era Mike Koehler .....	99

COMMENTS

Students as Consumers: Finding and Applying a Workable Standard When Institutions Fail to Give the “Benefit of the Bargain” Sarah Anjum .....	151
Turning Up the Heat on Science: A New Threat to Academic Freedom David Fox .....	173
“Twiqbal’s” Impact on Federal District Courts in Ohio Carl A. Schaffer .....	199