
THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 43

NUMBER 3

SPRING 2012

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PUBLIC SECTOR LABOR LAW
AT THE CROSSROADS SYMPOSIUM

Introduction..... ix

ARTICLES

The Rise and Fall of SB-5: The Rejection of an Anti-Union Law in Historical and Political Context
Joseph E. Slater.....473

Privatizing Government Services in the Era of ALEC and the Great
Recession
Ellen Dannin.....503

Compensation, Employment Security, and the Economics of Public
Sector Labor Law
Matthew Dimick533

Teaching for America: Unions and Academic Freedom
Charlotte Garden563

The Chill of a Wintry Light? Borough of Duryea v. Guarnieri and the Right to Petition in Public Employment
William A. Herbert583

Southern Solutions for Wisconsin Woes
Ann C. Hodges.....633

Binding Arbitration as a Means of Settling Public Sector Union
Contracts: A Process with an Image Problem?
Michelle T. Sullivan.....655

NOTES & COMMENTS

Birthright Citizenship: Misguided Calls for Reform
William Bingle.....669

Myriad Problems: An Analysis of the Challenges to Gene Patents and the Policy Questions Raised Eric Johnson	695
Arbitration Clauses after Rent-A-Center v. Jackson and Granite Rock v. International Brotherhood of Teamsters Mara Rendina	725
Thou Shall Not Exclude: How Christian Legal Society v. Martinez Affects Expressive Associations, Limited Public Forums, and Student's Associational Rights Jonathan Winters	747
INDEX TO VOLUME 43	777