Scope and Contents

Collection contains minutes and agendas of the governing council of the College of Arts and Sciences, a representative body of the college's faculty. The council deals with matters of curriculum and policy within the college. The minutes are arranged in chronological order.

The College has undergone several name and organizational changes. In 2010, the college was divided into the College of Language, Literature, and Social Science (LLSS) and the College of Natural Science and Mathematics. In 2016, LLSS was renamed the College of Arts and Letters. Future related series of records will be filed under their current College name.
