Scope and Contents

From the office of the dean of the college, this series concerns the accreditation of teacher education programs. Specifically, The National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education and the North Central Association for Accreditation are documented.

The College has undergone several name and organizational changes, including the College of Education, the College of Education and Allied Professions, and the current Judith Herb College of Education. Future related series of records will be filed under their current College, Office or Department name.
