Biographical / Historical

The Strategic Planning Committee at the University of Toledo was created 150 years ago with its anniversary set to take place in 2022. The current strategic plan was created in 2017 and will continue until 2022. In this plan, the University has revised both its mission and vision, but it also includes a new mission and values. These values are excellence, student-centeredness, research and scholarship, professionalism and leadership, and diversity. Under each of these new values, different sub-goals which includes outcomes, baselines, targets, and responsibilities which are used to make sure that all of the colleges and functions are working on the plan and are held accountable. The plan also includes several other plans that were already developed in recent years at Utoledo which are the Strategic Plan for Diversity and Inclusion, the Multiple-campus Master Plan, and the Strategic Enrollment Plan.
