Biographical/Historical Sketch

Dr. Sam R. Snyder, born June 22, 1932 in Sandusky OH, was a professor of Educational Theory and Social Foundations at the University of Toledo. Snyder was interested in the development of schools and compiled a comprehensive history of Scott High School in Toledo with Dr. David Tavel. In addition, and relevant to this collection, Snyder traveled to South Korea in 1987 to complete a year as an instructor. This faculty member exchange program was sponsored by the UT International Student Programs. Snyder held conferences at UT to discuss with parents what they should be looking for in a quality school. Dr. Snyder was passionate about the development of schools and the development of students within them.
