

Confidentiality Agreement

Bittersweet Farms records, MSS-195

All researchers who wish to gain access to the records of Bittersweet Farms must sign this confidentiality agreement. All researchers consulting this collection will be required to keep confidential the names of individual residents and family members of Bittersweet Farms that may be named in the records.

I, _____, promise to honor the strict confidentiality of individual residents and family members contained in the records of Bittersweet Farms (MSS-195) housed at the Ward M. Canaday Center at the University of Toledo. This means I will not divulge the names of any individuals named in the files through any media, be it verbal or visual, or through formal or informal communication.

I will not contact or attempt to contact any resident or family member named in the collection.

Signed: _____

Date: _____