FOR RELEASE: Sunday, March 15 '64

TOLEDO, OHIO, MARCH 15---The University of Toledo's new baseball park off Westwood Ave. and east of Glass Bowl Stadium will be officially dedicated as "Connelly Field" in memory of David Vincent Connelly, who coached Rocket baseball teams from 1930-1950 during a career which also saw him serve at different times as athletic director, football coach, track and cross-country coach, boxing coach, director of intramurals, and dean of men.

Athletic director Frank X. Lauterbur, who made the announcement, said that the official designation of Toledo's new baseball facility as "Connelly Field" will be made during ceremonies prior to the Rockets' game against Notre Dame University on Saturday, April 18.

Taking part in the dedication ceremonies will be Connelly's widow, Mrs. David V. Connelly of 1501 Potomac Drive, who will throw out the first ball after university officials honor her husband's many contributions to the school's athletics, particularly baseball.

Members of Connelly's teams covering two decades will be invited back as honored guests of the day, and a reunion of the team members is scheduled for noon in the Student Union under the auspices of the Alumni Association.

Connelly coached Toledo baseball in its infancy, and in the only "glory" days the sport has known at the university--the mid-thirties when the college games drew up to 5,000 fans in old Swayne Field, home of the American Association Toledo Mud Hens.

Connelly came to Toledo in 1926 after a professional baseball career with the Detroit Tigers chain and began coaching the sport in 1930. His teams posted a 60-27 record in the first eight seasons, an era when Toledo regularly held its own against the Midwest's top major college teams like Ohio State, Michigan, and Notre Dame. He stayed at Toledo until his death August 27, 1955.

Among the dozens of players who came to respect Connelly's knowledge of the game were Charlie Cupp, first baseman who later played with the St. Louis Cardinals, and infielder-outfielder Charlie Harmon, who later began a major league career with Cincinnati's Reds.

The choice of the April 18 date with Notre Dame to dedicate "Connelly Field" is an appropriate one. The series with the Fighting Irish is one of the oldest in Toledo's athletic history, and Jake Kline, who was coaching Notre Dame when Connelly's Toledoans first met the Irish, is still coaching the South Bend institution and will lead the 1964 ND team in the dedication game of "Connelly Field."

Lauterbur says a handsome "Connelly Field" sign will be erected to mark the facility in advance of the dedication game.
