GRAPHIC DESIGN

Multimedia designers provide professional 2D and 3D graphic design services for teaching and other scholarly or academic use. They can create posters, banners and icons, animations, and 3D models to enhance your online or blended courses and create an engaging learning environment for your students.

2D Graphics (Posters, Banners, Icons, etc.)

Two weeks from initial Consultation to completion

3D Graphics (Animation, Models, etc.)

Three weeks from initial consultation to completion.

AUDIO/VIDEO RECORDING & EDITING

UT Online's multimedia design team, in partnership with the Center for Creative Instruction (CCI), uses a professional green screen facility and sound booth for high-end audio/video production. They can also meet you with you in your office, in a classroom or lab, or other dynamic locations to film and produce quality videos.

Whether you record a video lecture or create your own footage, UT Online's multimedia designers can enhance your video by adding transitions, music, and special effects, by trimming and re-sequencing clips, and by adding graphics, photos, and animations that help to illustrate complex subjects.

Video and/or Audio Recording, Music, Foley Sounds, Voice Over, Green Screen Design

Between two to three weeks from initial consultation to completion

AUDIO/VIDEO CONVERSION & DIGITIZATION

Multimedia designers can convert your VHS videos to DVDs or other digital formats and publish them to UT Online's secure streaming media server.

Multimedia designers can also convert audio and video content to appropriate formats for use on the web, and for easy access for the learners.

Digitize DVD or VHS

Two weeks from filling out the form and dropping off the media to completion

Codec: H.264 (lossless vs lossy)

A video codec is an electronic circuit or software that compresses or decompresses digital video. It converts raw (uncompressed) digital video to a compressed format or vice-versa. In the context of video compression, "codec" is a concatenation of "encoder" and "decoder"—a device that only compresses is typically called an encoder, and one that only decompresses is a decoder.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Video\_codec

File Format: MP4 (.avi, .mov, .wmv, .ogg, realtime, .mkv)

Captioning Services

UT ONLINE
THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

Any audio or video resources used in our courses must have equivalent text alternatives. For instance, if we use podcasts in our course, synchronous captions or a text transcript should be provided. Videos in the course must have synchronized opened or closed captions. Faculty members are not responsible for creating captions. However, faculty are responsible for ensuring alternative access to multimedia is present in the course. The Office of Student Disability Services assists instructors with captioning video materials for online courses. Refer to the information below on how to contact and receive assistance from the Office of Student Disability Services.

Self-Captioning Tools

For those who would like to caption their own videos, there are a number of captioning tools available. The simplest self-captioning tool is available through YouTube (guide is © NCDAE; link opens in a new tab). YouTube can automatically set timings for captions, and fixing automatic captions is easy through a simple editor provided by the site.

More captioning tools can be found at Caption It Yourself and sites like Amara.org have catalogs for captioned videos as well as a caption-it-yourself tool (links open in a new tab).
