

Position Title: Quality Systems Technician

Location: Oregon, OH

Pay: $17-$18/hour depending on experience

Company Information: This is a medical device company that manufactures, tests, and distributes dialysis equipment

Job Description:

- Samples, inspects and tests packaging and chemical components according to established procedures and laboratory methodology to ensure conformance with approved specifications.
- Samples and tests in process and finished product according to established procedures and laboratory methodology to ensure conformance with approved specifications.
- Records all inspection and testing data on the appropriate report sheets/log book as per approved procedure or/and good laboratory practices.
- Uses several computer macros/programs to create the Material Control Data Sheet or other DHR reports for the use of batching product or reporting the process data.
- Assures laboratory equipment and instrumentation is calibrated and properly maintained.
- Maintains inventory on glassware, laboratory equipment, chemicals and reagents.
- Ensures that all chemicals, reagents and solutions are properly labeled and expired items are removed from use.
- Assists in the development and implementation of new analytical equipment, test methodology, raw materials and products.

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in Chemistry, Biochemistry, Biology, or Microbiology and 0-2 years of laboratory experience

Start Date: January 30th, 2017

Shift: 11:00pm – 7:00am

Contact Information if interested: (248)229-9522 or Allie Alfonso (Scientific Recruiter)
aalfonso@aerotek.com