

The following is the job description:

- Work in a team-based production environment to support activities in photolithography, wet processing, PVD/CVD, metrology and inspection.
- Will be required to accurately follow process instructions and maintain quality standards.
- Work safely and maintain expected levels of cleanliness in areas where hazardous chemicals are stored or in use.
- Some moderate lifting (<20 lbs) will be required.
- Learn best practices for various processes involved with silicon wafer fabrication.

Requirements

- Ability to handle fragile materials - must demonstrate sufficient hand-eye coordination
- High attention to detail
- Proficiency in Microsoft Windows, Microsoft Office (Word and Excel) and Internet
- Experienced in safely working with and around hazardous chemicals
- Ability to work in clean room environment, which is temperature and humidity controlled, and requires wearing company-provided garments.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills

Supplementary

- Understanding of statistics and statistical analysis
- Previous manufacturing experience in a similar environment

Thank you,

Neil Young

Technical Researcher

NYoung@ITSTechnologies.com | Desk: 419-842-2132 | Toll-Free: 800-432-6607 x246