

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

Lake Erie Center

PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES

Making the connections between the land and Lake Erie:
Old Woman Creek studies the pieces and parts in between

THURSDAY, FEB. 20
7-8 p.m.

Free and open to the public!

Lake Erie Center
6200 Bayshore Road
Oregon, Ohio

KRISTI AREND

Research Coordinator

Old Woman Creek National Estuarine
Research Reserve & Ohio Department of Natural Resources

EXPLORING
OPPORTUNITIES

Take a shuttle from UToledo's Main Campus to the Lake Erie Center.

The shuttle will depart at 6:15 p.m. from the south side of the University's Bowman-Oddy Laboratories on Towerview Boulevard. Passengers will be returned to Main Campus following the lecture.

Passengers must reserve their spots by Tuesday, Feb. 18, by emailing lakeriecenter@utoledo.edu or calling 419.530.8360.

@LakeErieCenter

utoledo.edu/nsm/lec

FUELING TOMORROWS