

Student Interprofessional Research Field Experiences:

- Spring 2012 “Measuring the Effectiveness of TeamSTEPPS Communication Skills Using Simulation Technology”
Students-Nikki Boyer, Austin Bryant, Katie Banyash , James Linser
- Spring 2012 “Developing Team Leadership Skills through the use of Advanced Simulation Technologies”
Students-Courtney Mooney, Angelena Zobel
- Spring 2011 A Field Study experience entitled “Investigating the Benefits of the Wheelchair to Realchair Program”
Students-Kacie Kauzlick, Ann MacDonald, Krytyn Schurig, Lindsay Spitnale
- Spring 2011 A Field Study experience entitled “Interprofessional COPD Simulation with 3-D CAD Wall”
Students-Marissa Phillips, Jennings Smith
- Spring 2010 “A Field Study Investigating a Select Group of Religious Sisters; Specifically Whether Religious Attire Affects Hearing Loss”
Student-Elizabeth Gates

Interprofessional Presentations:

- Fall 2011 “Collaborating Across the Borders III: Interprofessional Collaboration from Concept to Preparation to Practice” International Conference.
Spoke at plenary session entitled “Informing CIHC’s national Interprofessional Competency Framework
- Spring 2012 “Measuring the Effectiveness of TeamSTEPPS Communication Skills Using Simulation Technology”
University of Toledo-Midwest Graduate Research Symposium
Midwest Nursing Research Society Annual Conference
University of Toledo-College of Nursing Research Conference
- Spring 2012 “Developing Team Leadership Skills through the use of Advanced Simulation Technologies”
University of Toledo-Midwest Graduate Research Symposium
University of Toledo-College of Nursing Research Conference