Chris Roseman and Alana Malik will be available during the times listed below to assist faculty and staff members responsible for completing assessment reports due to the University Assessment Committee on November 1st.

The goals of the workshop are to explain the types of information being requested in each section of the document and answer questions from participants. Seating for each workshop is limited. Please rsvp to Alana Malik (alana.malik@utoledo.edu) by at least one day prior to the scheduled workshop that you would like to attend.
