

NAVIGATING COVID-19 COURSE CONCERNS -

If you're a student who - tests positive for COVID-19: -

If you're a student taking precautions
due to COVID-19 status:

POTENTIAL SCENARIOS MIGHT INCLUDE:

- You're self-quarantining due to potential COVID exposure.
- You're required to self-quarantine after travel.
- You're providing care for a dependent or other family member related to COVID-19.

STEP 1

You or your designee should submit a request for accommodation by contacting Student Disability Services (SDS) at 419.530.4981 or emailing StudentDisability@utoledo.edu

STEP 1

You or your designee submits a Rocket Care Form. Go to <https://www.utoledo.edu/report/> and then click "Rocket Care Report" on lower right side.

STEP 2

SDS notifies your instructors of required accommodations.

STEP 2

Look for follow-up calls, emails, or texts from the Office of Student Advocacy OR from the success coach if more information is needed. We want to best help you!

STEP 3

SDS will email you a list of resources beneficial to you and to your situation. Your UToledo support team will be copied on the email.

STEP 3

A letter will be emailed to your instructors encouraging them to work with you to identify reasonable supportive measures. Your UToledo support team will be copied on the email.

STEP 4

An accessibility specialist from SDS will follow-up with you to help you successfully navigate the situation.

STEP 4

You will discuss with your instructor(s) reasonable supportive measures for remote learning that work best for your situation.

STEP 5

If you run into challenges, alert your contact from STEP 2. They will help you navigate further!

- Office of Student Advocacy: 419.530.2471 or rocketresponse@utoledo.edu
- Center for Success Coaching: 419.530.1250 or successcoach@utoledo.edu