(A) Policy statement

It is the policy of the University of Toledo Medical Center and its Medical Staff that all information regarding granting, modification, or restriction of clinical privileges will be disseminated to the appropriate individuals, services, and departments in a timely manner.

(B) Purpose of policy

To ensure that information is readily available regarding which practitioners have been approved to perform specific clinical privileges.

(C) Procedure

- (1) Practitioner-specific information regarding clinical privileges will be maintained on E-Priv, the online privilege database which is accessible on all networked computers at the UT Medical Center.
- (2) New information regarding the granting, modification, or restriction of clinical privileges will be disseminated via email to the appropriate individuals, and updated on E-Priv.
- (3) Questions regarding clinical privileges can be answered by Medical Staff Services personnel during regular business hours, Monday through Friday (holidays excluded) at 419.383.5322.
