

Exploring Quality of Life in Our Community

Now that your group has been assigned a specific street to explore, let’s consider what you already know and want to know. Take a look at the map with your street highlighted . . .

What do you know about houses on this street?	What do you want to know about houses on this street?

What is your hypothesis about the quality of housing on your assigned street?