

Student Resource IX

Reflections on Housing and Quality of Life

Now that we've considered factors that affect quality of life and explored housing in our community, please write three paragraphs, double-spaced in response to this question:

How does the condition and availability of housing impact the quality of life in a community?

Be sure to integrate at least three specific examples from your assigned street to support your response.