

Explaining Housing Conditions through Secondary Sources

In this exercise, you will consult available community housing databases to understand the conditions on your assigned block/s.

Please answer the following questions related to the sources provided to you.

Website: _____

1. What information is available about properties on this site? List at least six items here.

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.
- e.
- f.

2. What year (or years) are associated with the data provided on the site?

3. What new information does it reveal about your block/s?

4. How does your group findings differ from the information on the site?

5. What did you find most interesting about the site?