

Sexual Assault Education Prevention Program Presents: Debbie Riddle

"I know that by telling Peggy's story, I will save a life in the future."

Debbie Riddle's call to advocate for survivors of stalking came after the death of her sister, Peggy Klinke. Peggy Klinke was murdered by her stalker. Debbie worked closely with the Stalking Resource Center to advocate for the launch of National Stalking Awareness Month. Debbie has worked tirelessly for survivors of stalking and speaks nationally about her experience.
