1. The respondent has the right to be informed of the charges against him/her in writing via UT email.

2. The hearing will be conducted in a fair manner as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.

3. The respondent has the right to be assisted by an adviser of his/her choice, who is not acting in the capacity of a lawyer or attorney. The adviser, upon the request of the respondent, may:
   a. Advise and assist the respondent in the preparation and presentation of his/her defense;
   b. Accompany the respondent at all conduct hearings; and
   c. Advise and assist the respondent in the preparation and presentation of appeals.

4. The respondent has the right to request a copy of the incident report.

5. The respondent has the right to call a reasonable number of witnesses, who may be subject to questions from the hearing administrator.
   a. Names and contact information of witnesses must be provided to the hearing administrator at least two business days prior to the hearing.

6. The respondent has the right not to appear or to remain silent at the hearing.
   a. In the event that the respondent fails to appear at the hearing after proper notification, information related to the charges will be examined and considered in the determination of the outcome.

The full text of the Student Code of Conduct is available on the UT Policy website.